DELIGHT AS RARE CHICKS HATCH

By Karen Davis

TWENTY rare Avocet chicks have successfully hatched on Two Tree Island, thanks to the support of more than 70 volunteers.

Avocet Watch, organised by Essex Wildlife Trust, was set up after thieves stole eggs in 2004 and 2005, two days prior to hatching.

The volunteers provided round-the-clock surveillance of the breeding Avocet from April until early June to make sure that the birds, which are legally protected and listed on Schedule 1 of the Wildlife and Countryside Act, remained safe.

Stephanie Campbell,

Southend Council's environmental projects manager, said: "Two Tree Island is a fantastic nature reserve, and I would like to thank the warden, Mark Bridges, who played a significant role in recruiting new volunteers."

Councillor Derek Jarvis said: "The success of these chicks has been a real community effort - everyone who took part in Avocet Watch can be very proud of themselves for all their efforts."

Avocets are notable for their long curved-up black beaks.

Pier welcomes historic ship

By Karen Davis

A HISTORIC vessel visited Southend Pier last week as part of its 60th anniversary celebrations.

Crowds gathered at the end of the pier to sail on the much-loved Balmoral pleasure cruise ship.

The vessel is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee this summer, and a wide variety of trips are planned.

These include day and evening excursions, as well as sailings to the Suffolk coast, Kent and London.

Councillor Derek Jarvis, Southend Council's deputy executive councillor for enterprise, tourism and regeneration, said: "This is a magnificent opportunity to gain a really unique and wonderful seagoing experience."

"We are thrilled to be able to share in the celebrations for the Balmoral's Jubilee Year, and to offer the chance to book a whole range of trips."

"In September, we are also looking forward to the visit of another historic vessel, the Waverley - the world's last seagoing paddle steamer."

The Balmoral, a traditional pleasure cruise ship, was built in Southampton in 1949 and operated under the Southampton Red Funnel Fleet and P&A Campbell's famous White Funnel Fleet for more than 30 years before falling into disrepair. She was lovingly restored in 2004.

Designed in classical 1930s Art Deco style, the ship boasts two comfortable lounge bars and an observation suite, a restaurant, a passenger promenade deck and a souvenir shop.

The Balmoral's Diamond Jubilee cruise on Saturday to Whitstable departs the Pier Head at 1.30pm and returns at 5.30pm.

There are discounted fares for senior citizens and children.

For more information, call the booking line on 0845 130 4647. Tickets are also available from the Visitor Information Centre or online at www.waverleyexcursions.co.uk

The editor formally known as

Fidge

I WAS lucky enough to watch all of the men's final at Wimbledon on Sunday.

Well, I say all. I did fall asleep during the fifth set, but luckily Roddick and Federer realised and carried on playing until I woke up at nine sets each.

It was great to see two players at the top of their game duke it out for hours on end with little to choose between them. Then, after their respective victory and defeat, Federer and Roddick were both gracious and humble.

But despite seeing this epic final, I still wish it had been won by Andy Murray. The reason is not because I'm a fan of his - I think he's a little arrogant and petulant to be honest. It's because if he won, then maybe, just maybe, we would give the other British tennis hopefuls a chance without the heavily glaring spotlight of pressure on them.

Look at Laura Robson. She won the girls event last year at the age of 14 and suddenly people think we have a contender to win the women's event. Her defeat in the first round this year to Daniela Hantuchova - who is 11 years her senior, has numerous titles to her name and is a former mentee of legendary Martina Navratilova - was not a surprise. Yet many met it with dismay.

The same goes for Tim Henman, who endured it for years. Each year he was built up to win Wimbledon and slated each time he didn't.

It's a worrying pressure that is put on our sporting hopefuls. Next year, we have the World Cup taking place and no doubt the poison pens will be out if England don't win.

I'm hoping that by the time the London Olympics come round in 2012, we will have learned to ease up a little.

Leigh policeman up for a bravery award

By Karen Davis

A POLICE officer has been nominated for a national bravery award following an incident in Leigh last year.

PC Steve Fisk, 47, has been nominated by the Essex Federation for the Sun Bravery Award for his actions.

The officer was flagged down by a member of the public, who had seen a man waving a gun around.

PC Fisk found the man, watched him and saw that he was acting erratically, attempting to get in cars waiting at the traffic lights near Station Road and London Road.

He said: "It was 9am and there were women and children around. I knew I had to do something and fast."

"At this stage, I couldn't see a gun but believed it was under his clothing."

PC Fisk saw an opportunity to sneak up on the man and got behind him unnoticed. He then grabbed the man's arms through some railings and restrained him until back-up arrived.

The man had a gun in his trousers, which was later found to be a replica.

Temporary chief constable, Andy Bliss, who is meeting up with PC Fisk this week, said: "To tackle someone you think has a gun in order to make sure they are detained before anyone got hurt was a very brave thing to do."

PC Fisk has been on the force for 21 years and has three sons aged 19, 17 and seven.

He said: "My sons are mega proud of me. I tried to talk it down but they said 'hold on dad, you took someone out who you thought had a gun - that is so cool.'"

PC Fisk will be attending the awards in London on Thursday, July 16.

THIS year's World Record attempt to get the most women in bikinis on the same beach at the same time will take place on Sunday, August 2, on Jubilee Beach, Southend.

The event will raise money for Southend Hospital's Bosom Pals Appeal. Unfortunately last year's attempt fell short of the record, so this year's sponsors - Southend Radio and the Rendevous Casino - hope they will have better luck this time around.

Neighbours unite to release a book of verse for charity

By Karen Davis

RESIDENTS of a Westcliff apartment block have got together to produce a charity book of verse.

Riverstone Rhymes is the brainchild of Keith Martin and Gloria Smillie, who set up a 'Poetry Corner' for people living in Riverstone apartments in Crowstone Road, Westcliff, three years ago.

The book is an eclectic collection of poetry and prose from the residents, friends and families of the residents.

All profits from the sale of the book go to Barnardos and Shelter.

Riverstone Rhymes costs £4.99, and is available from Professional Music Technology in Queens Road, Southend, or by visiting www.southend@pmtonline.co.uk.

The Great Pier Swim

THE HAVENS Hospices Great Pier Swim is taking place on Sunday, July 19, and the deadline to sign up has been extended to July 10.

The event is a 3k open water challenge starting from Jubilee Beach in Southend and ending up at Thorpe Bay Beach.

Last year's event raised more than £33,000 and thanks to even more support from local water-based clubs providing sea marshals, the number of spaces for this year's swim has been upped from 200 to 500 with all finishers receiving commemorative medals.

Training opportunities are available from the team at Tri N Swim W.E.L.L in Rochford, which boasts an 'endless pool'.

The company will be donating £1 from every hour session booked by entrants of the Great Pier Swim back to Havens Hospices.

There will also be attractions to greet the finishers at Thorpe Bay Beach including a BBQ sponsored by Maxims Casino.

Entrance to the swim costs £20.

To find out more, call 01702 220356 or visit www.havenshospices.org.uk

Look after your dog

DOG owners are being warned that pets can get dehydrated very easily and also suffer from sunburn and heatstroke.

Valerie Howells, Southend-on-Sea Borough Council's animal warden, said: "Don't ever leave your dog in a hot car, but at home instead in a nice cool place - not the conservatory.

"Don't walk your dog in the hottest part of the day, and always carry a water bottle and bowl if you have to take your dog out."

Get your bike tagged

RESIDENTS can get their bikes tagged and logged on to a national database.

The council is holding a series of events across the borough to make it easier for police to recover your bicycle if it is stolen.

The tag is like a unique barcode and holds information about who owns it.

The next event takes place on Friday, July 24, from 10am to 5pm at Garon Park, Southend - for more information, contact 01702 464199.

• Yellow Advertiser apologises to anyone who turned up last week due to a printing error.

Crash cyclist named

A CYCLIST who died in a collision last Friday has been identified as a 43-year-old man from Southend.

Nigel Garrett, of Newington Avenue, was cycling in Lifstan Way, Southend, early on Saturday morning when he was in collision with a car.

A teenager was arrested on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving.

The 19-year-old man, also from Southend, was later released on police bail until October 18.

Any witnesses to the crash are asked to call Essex Police on 0300 333 4444.

High-Tech MEMBRANE ROOFING

lifetime guaranteed flat roofing

www.flatroofs.net

Anti-Slip Finish as Standard

A FAILING FLAT ROOF: THE WARNING SIGNS

Due to the slow breakdown of a felt roof leaking water can often cause structural damage before the problem can be visibly detected. Look for signs of cracking around the edges, pipes, up stands and roof lights etc. Beware of blisters on the roof surface as they will eventually become brittle and crack. Is your roof attracting moss and algae further degrading the roof surface? It is important to note insurers will not pay for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking flat roof over 10 years old leaving the home owner with the financial burden.

It was 1999 that we first introduced the highest technology in flat roofing to the domestic market. Protan, our preferred Single-Ply membrane has a worldwide reputation with millions of square metres installed in all climates. With a proven track record stretching over 4 decades making it a safe and economic choice for the home owner.

THE HIGH TECH SOLUTION & ALL THE ANSWERS

With advanced technology a High Tech roof is dimensionally stable, solar reflective & 100% resistant to moss & algae growth. It is a maintenance free vapour permeable system and will never blister or become brittle and crack plus is unaffected by climate change, all joins are permanently welded. We will create a 100% storm resistant water-tight flat roof guaranteed for life never to leak. This roof system is the No. 1 choice of leading architects, the roof has a unique anti slip finish making it safe to walk on at all times and offers real quality & value to the home owner.

Donate your old bangers

JAMES Duddridge, MP for Rochford and Southend East, is appealing for people who have old cars, vans and motorcycles to donate them to Crown College for their new course for trainee motor mechanics.

Crown College's new training centre in Sutton Road, Southend, is offering a Level 1 qualification in Motor Vehicle Studies, which will give students the necessary skills and knowledge to be a motor mechanic.

As the course is practical, the students will be unable to complete their diploma without the generosity of local people who are able to donate old cars.

Mr Duddridge said: "This excellent vocational training course will give lots of young people in Rochford and Southend and South East Essex a great opportunity to learn the skills and knowledge to launch a career in the motor industry."

"I would urge any local people and businesses who have old vehicles that are not needed to please donate them to Crown College."

Elaine Wardrop, business development manager for Crown College said: "The opening of our seventh training centre on Sutton Road will build on Crown's existing provision, delivering new opportunities for young people."

If you can donate a vehicle, call Elaine Wardrop at Crown College on 01702 341169.

Please don't shoot the messenger

AS I have been rebuked by the Revd. Ransom and Mr Stockwell (YA Letters, June 24), I feel I should be given the chance to reply.

The map published with the JAAP clearly shows that the revised airport boundary fence encloses the front eastern corner of the churchyard.

At a consultative meeting, I queried this with a representative of Southend Planning Department.

He admitted this was the case but believed that the map would be more accurately drawn in the future so that this would not happen. This may be more easily said than done.

The draughtsman who laid out the line of the fence was aware of current safety regulations and abided by them. I will only rely on hard facts and have no confidence in warm words spoken off the record.

There were two runway extensions that I watched being done prior to the changes in 2004 that shortened its effective length to 1,610 metres.

The first was in 1955/6 when the runway was hardened by soil stabilisation at a cost of £168,000 by Gough Cooper and Co Ltd.

Eastwoodbury, the historic old house, was bulldozed into its sunken garden and the mature specimen trees in its admittedly overgrown garden felled. This work was completed in the spring of 1956.

In June of that year, it was decided that with the addition of an earth blast wall, the runway could be extended closer to the lane which was done by the spring of 1957.

This may be splitting hairs, but was the second extension to which I referred.

Gough Cooper and Co Ltd lost money on this contract - an omen for the future.

Eastwoodbury's farmhouse and associated farm buildings, a pair of wooden cottages and a pair of smallholding cottages were later demolished.

I did not say these changes did not result in an increase of traffic, but that they failed to deliver the golden age of prosperity promised.

It is not misinformation to point out that 10 years of modest growth; profits peaked at £108,368 in 1967, were followed by 40 years of decline and loss. That does not, in my book, constitute sustained development of the kind we were told to expect.

If the airport was the magnet for holiday travellers as claimed, where were they in 2002 when, before the new safety zones applied, flying operations were losing £600,000 a year? Thomson Holidays could operate £21 a seat cheaper from Stansted a possible explanation.

The proposed runway extension to 1,799 metres increases its length by 189 metres, not 200. I am obliged to Mr Stockwell for reminding me that this puts the airport back to where it was.

There is only one Southampton airport, there are six claiming to be London's. Southampton is a major shipping hub - probably the country's biggest and passengers fly there to get there; they will not do so for Southend so are not comparable.

Every so often, someone comes along to take a bet on making a profit out of the airport. Like the bankers, they use your capital and I do not just mean money. Just look at the environmental costs already incurred.

If this development takes place, when the time comes to re-licence the airport and the special dispensation for the church is withdrawn as it now stretches the rules too far, will they simply turn round and say 'Ah well, it was only money?'

I do not like contradicting the vicar, but please do not shoot the messenger.

Let us err on the side of safety

I THINK Chas Cheesman (YA Letters, Jul 1) is a bit harsh on whoever decided to ban flowers from Southend Hospital when he calls him or her a 'jobsworth' and says there has been no evidence of flower infection causing a single death.

The world has moved on since the days of Florence Nightingale and we know a lot more about bacteria now.

I don't know where he got his statistic from, but it is a fact that there is a bacteria called pseudomonas found in soil and water which can be deadly for hospital patients with low white blood cell count and reduced immunity such as those suffering from cancer, leukaemia, lymphomas or respiratory illnesses.

I think the problem is that the nursing staff do not have the time or inclination to ensure the water in the vases does not stagnate or to clean up quickly where there is spillage and further risk of infection.

Rather than call them 'jobsworths', I prefer to rely on their judgement as professionals. If they believe there is a risk to patients, let us always err on the side of safety.

Hospital wards can just as easily be 'brightened up' with a regular change of sealed wall paintings and the greatest 'brightener up' for me is the sight of my temperature chart indicating 'normal and no sign of infection'.

S Askham
Elmsleigh Drive, Leigh

Hospital staff don't need criticism

I RESPECT the fact that some readers are upset about the ban on flowers but due to infection control and the advanced bedside procedures that now take place, I fully support the ban.

Southend University Hospital works hard to prevent the spread of infection, which in turn helps patients to recover without the risk of infection, which can be fatal.

Obstacles such as flowers in vases are a danger around the equipment used at the bedside. In days gone past, such procedures were done elsewhere, so obstacles such as flowers were not such a danger. Now equipment is portable, it can be brought to the bedside and spillage can be a risk.

Hospital staff work extremely hard to put patient care first. You may see nurses sitting at the desk writing or at their computers, but they are probably planning someone's discharge, or setting up their care plan so they can go home.

Everything is now done on computer. This is done on top of direct patient care, administering drugs, supporting distressed families etc.

On the ward I work on, we are constantly praised by patients and their families for the hard work and dedication of all the staff, however I sometimes wonder why I gave up a well-paid job to take up nursing when all I read in the public domain is criticism.

Stop fobbing us off, Mr Amess

DAVID Amess has still failed to face his constituents in any public meeting to answer questions in respect of his allowances. Now he has decided to give an account in the Yellow Advertiser (July 1).

Interestingly, he gives no explanation whatsoever on his new £1,500 website which went live last month - the website that was no doubt prompted by the expenses scandal and the public outcry over MPs use of taxpayers' money.

In the article, the Southend West MP insisted that accusations of him opposing expenses reform, is a mistake.

No mistake Mr Amess, you have voted on at least two occasions to prevent changes to allowances system.

Mr Amess reportedly said that he does not want to see taxpayers' money being wasted. I assume this includes the £646 he has been claiming each year to have chartered accountants complete his self-assessment tax return - something MPs are expressively forbidden to claim for.

The constituents of Southend West are not stupid enough to be fobbed off by Mr Amess's weak argument.

Hopefully, this will be shown at the ballot box in the next General Election.

Garry Sheen
Boyce Hill Close, Leigh

Second homes can't be justified

IN your recent edition, Mr Amess and Mr Duddridge gave excellent defence of their parliamentary expenses.

However, there is one question I wish to have answered. Why do they need second homes when their constituencies lie a mere 35 miles from London and are served by one of the best railway services in the land?

Thousands of their constituents travel from the Southend area on a daily basis without claiming expenses.

If their work requires that they remain in London, there are hotels available.

I do not believe that a second home is required or justified, especially at public expense.

On a lighter note - why does one MP eat £4,800 of food and the other £0?

Canvey Island's Newest Lettings Agents.

HEALE Property Management is the newest business of its kind on the Island and is a family run company headed by brother and sister team Nick and Billie Heale, located in the High Street at the top of May Avenue - in the office previously occupied by Bromley's and Emerald Estate Agents.

The team at Heale Property Management specialise solely in Residential Lettings and Property Management, unlike other companies who also manage sales of properties.

This enable them to offer a focussed and professional service for all your letting needs. The Heales are a well-known family on Canvey who have been four generations on the Island!

Their local knowledge therefore, is second to none, Nick and Billie's grandfather has owned property on the Island since the early 1950 and even helped to build the sea wall after the flood of 1953.

Their father, Billy Heale, previously played for and managed the local football team - Canvey Island FC - and in 1997 their brother Danny followed in his fathers footsteps to play for another local team - Concorde Rangers. Danny also manages the Concorde Rangers Youth Team.

The family has owned and let property on the Island for more than five decades and has found a gap in the market for a company offering a full property management service. "We were looking for an efficient management service for our portfolio of properties that was sadly lacking in the area.

Experience

"We began to manage them ourselves and have now decided to share our experience and expertise with other landlords. We can take away the hassle of renting out your property and deal with everything from initial marketing to arranging for a leaky tap to be fixed", explained Nick.

Whether you are a first time landlord looking for advice or are unhappy with your current property management provider. Heale Property Management is able to find the perfect tenant for you and to ensure that your property is well looked after.

You are guaranteed a personal service at all times and the team at Heales looks forward to working with you.

If you looking for a professional and experienced property management team, give Heale Property Management a call today 01268 515 121 or email info@healepropertymanagement.co.uk. To advertise call 01268 696 404 or 07974 238 657.

ASK THE AGENT ALAN KIRKMAN

ALAN KIRKMAN is chairman of Essex TEAM - part of the UK's largest branded network of independent estate agents, with 50 computer-linked offices across the county and 500 more nationwide. Managing Director of Tudor Estates in Southend, Alan has been an Estate Agent for over 25 years.

Q. I have been looking after a spare piece of land next to my house for a number of years. Do I have any rights over it?

A. This is really a matter for a solicitor. The law governing this sort of thing underwent some major revisions a few years ago. Up until then, all you needed to prove was that you had occupied the land for a period of 12 years without any challenge from the legal owners. After that, you could claim possessory rights over it (not quite as good as full title, but the next best thing - particularly if you took out suitable indemnity insurance).

Now, things are rather more complicated, and the simple 12-year threshold no longer applies. You can understand why. Squatters' rights - which is effectively what we are talking about here - were always something of an anomaly in modern-day society, and it was only a matter of time before some Government or other reined them in.

So, what is the current situation? Well, that depends. When you say you have been "looking after" the land, what exactly do you mean? If it is simply a piece of unfenced ground that you have kept a horse on, for example, then you have no rights over it at all. To claim any such rights, you must have fenced it in or formally delineated the boundaries of the plot in some other way - and preferably done something else to improve it as well, such as landscaped it.

However, the real crucial point is whether the legal owners of the land are aware of your occupying it, or not. If they are, and they have agreed to it - or even if they have simply condoned it - then they will be deemed to have exercised their right of ownership, and you yourself will therefore have no legal rights whatsoever.

On the other hand, if despite your very best efforts you have failed to locate the legal owners; if you have subsequently fenced the land in and landscaped it; and if in all that time no-one else has claimed ownership - then you may well have a case.

That's a lot of "ifs" - which is why, as I said at the beginning, the only real advice I can give you is - consult a solicitor.

DREAM DOORS®

"How I Transformed My Kitchen Without Having To Buy a New One!!"

"I would recommend Dream Doors every time"

"My kitchen was over 10 years old and looked tatty. I desperately needed a new kitchen but couldn't afford the cost or upheaval. I had heard good reports of Dream Doors, who specialise in kitchen facelifts, so I decided to give them a try. What a result!

As well as fitting brand new doors and worktops, everything was colour co-ordinated and I even gained additional cupboard space. My kitchen has been transformed in just over a day and I have saved 60% of the cost of a new one!

I was under no obligation from the initial visit, and the advice and estimate I received were free of charge. There was no mess, no fuss, just plenty of friendly, helpful advice and I didn't need to pay the balance until I was completely satisfied!"

"They completely transformed my kitchen in just 2 days and I had hundreds of colours and styles to choose from"

DREAMS: Tom Lester worked with Formula One giants Williams. Picture by Mark Cleveland

Life in the fast lane

EXCLUSIVE by Matthew Stanton

A SCHOOLBOY'S dream of becoming a race engineer is a step closer after he wrote to all 86 motorsport teams in the UK. Persistence paid off for Tom Lester, of Downer Road North, who has completed a week with the Williams Formula One team. His work experience included tasks on aero dynamics, wind tunnels and engine bays. The teenager has now been told to stay in regular contact with the Williams team, which he hopes could lead to bigger things. "I have always been a big fan of motor sports, so being able to sit in the Williams car was so enjoyable," he said. "Not many people get that opportunity. "The car was tight and very custom made for the driver. It was so surreal." Tom's placement included visiting the designs department and model shop and working with pieces of the vehicles. The 14-year-old was told to find a placement by Appleton School, in Croft Road, Benfleet. He said: "I was very persistent. Everyone else got work locally but I want to work in the racing business so I applied to each team."

Flood meeting

A MEETING will be held on Canvey about how to protect homes in the Thames area from rising sea levels. The drop-in session will take place in the Paddocks, Long Road, today (Thurs) from 3-9pm. The Environment Agency will discuss plans to improve sea defences and other proposals including flooding land on the island to create a wildlife haven.

Allotment plans

MESSY allotment sites will be taken away from owners to cope with the demand for plots in Rayleigh. Rayleigh Town Council will consider enforcement action on those not tending to their allotments properly. More than 80 people are on the list to get plots in Rayleigh.

our verdict

We drove through these little villages to find the farm and it was really nice. It had a big field with lots of fruit in it, some of which was on tables and others that were on trees. I was going to pick the fruit but I didn't feel well so I sat under a tree while Josh and mum got some. We tried some on the way home in the car and ate loads although we still have some left. The fruit was really delicious and much tastier than the stuff we buy from the shops.

Joseph Chambers, 11

It was a bit of a drive to get to the farm but really nice. There were loads of people already there and they were queuing up to pay for their fruit. Me and mum got two big punnets to fill with strawberries and walked through the field. They had loads and loads of strawberries growing and we picked lots. We found some strange looking ones - one of them even looked like a snowman. They were really tasty. We took loads home and they were delicious.

Joshua Chambers, 8

Best of the bunch

LIZ WADE and her two boys get back to nature on their visit to Lathcoats Farm in Chelmsford

WITH the 'five-a-day' health promotion introduced not so long ago, I am one of many parents who try to get as much fruit and veg down the kids as possible.

This isn't as easy as it sounds, and I will hold my hand up to struggling, but I do try my best.

So, when 'Pick Your Own' season arrives, it's an ideal opportunity to hit the fields of farms throughout the area and pick the best of the bunch, from strawberries and gooseberries, to blackberries and cherries.

We always like to try somewhere new and while we went to a Pick Your Own farm last year, in Brentwood, we thought we'd try out Lathcoats Farm in Chelmsford instead.

The farm has been an Essex fruit grower since 1921, and is one of the last remaining specialist family fruit farms in the county. From June, it is open to the public and you can pick your own mouthwatering fruit.

Not only is it delicious, but it is also cheaper than the supermarkets so you can get so much more for your money. And, seeing as you are selecting your own crop, there is no waste of spoiled fruit you may find at the bottom of the punnet you've picked up from a shop.

The boys like picking fruit and spend ages searching for the biggest strawberries they can find, as well as looking for unusual ones.

This year, Josh found one he then called the 'snowman', which was looked like two strawberries on top of each other, and a range of other weird and wonderful strawberries, all shaped a little different from the norm.

Joseph, on the other hand, who had all the intentions of searching through the tables of strawberries, ended up sitting it out under a tree as he was feeling a little under the weather - probably due to being up half the night at a sleepover at his primary school.

He did, however, help us consume vast quantities of strawberries when we got home, from strawberries with cream and strawberries with ice cream, to strawberries sprinkled with sugar. There was even enough left over for fruit smoothies, too.

Pick Your Own season calendars vary year from year but at Lathcoats Farm, its strawberries, raspberries and redcurrants are normally ready to pick in June and July; its gooseberries and cherries in June; its blackcurrants and boysenberries in July; its plums in July and August; and its blackberries in August.

The availability of fruit does always depend on the weather and how well the crop is doing each year, as well as how many people have beaten you to the rows of fruit, so always check availability before you leave, either via the farm's website or by giving them a call.

As well as its Pick Your Own crops, it also has a renowned farm shop, which offers a range of produce including more than 40 varieties of apples from its own orchards when they are in season including Essex's own Chelmsford Wonder, Queen, D'Arcy Spice and Discovery varieties, old favourites like Cox, and rare and unusual varieties such as Cornish Gillyflower.

Its selection of apples are so vast that it holds a special Apple Day event in October.

If you like apples that much you can even rent a tree, watch its fruit grow, pick the crop and keep every apple for yourself, whether you want to share them with family and friends, or use them to make chutneys, pies and purees.

The shop also stocks a wide range of food from organic lamb and farm-made ice cream, to Suffolk salami, from around 30 specialist producers around the region. It even has fresh fish available on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

What's more, you can enjoy an ice cream, hot drink or apple juice on the terrace behind the shop, meet the farm's menagerie of goats, pigs and donkeys, and watch the farm's swallows via its 'nest cam' during the summer.

The Fox and Hounds offers a 28-seater restaurant, which has gained a good reputation for its delicious home cooked food.

Its menu offers a range of dishes, which are all freshly prepared and cooked on the premises.

It is full of traditional country pub dishes, including home baked pies, cottage pie, steaks, chops and a range of vegetables, plus a special children's menu. There is also a range of daily specials on offer for customers to try.

Those choosing from the specials board between noon and 3pm, from Monday to Friday, can enjoy one course for £4.95, or a main course and pudding for £5.95. The specials board deal also runs from 6pm to 9pm from Monday to Friday when one course costs £5.95, or a main meal with pudding costs £6.95.

It has also introduced a Senior Citizens Special from noon to 3pm on Tuesday and Thursday.

Diners can enjoy their meals either in the pub's comfortable restaurant, or in the bar area where food is available all day.

The Fox and Hounds will be hosting a Beer Festival from July 23 to August 2, which will include entertainment on July 24, 25 and 26.

It also runs a disco night almost every Friday evening, and has introduced a selection of Real Ales, which change weekly.

The pub's garden, which boasts a children's play area and an outdoor seating area, is now open for the benefit of customers.

It will also have a marquee in its garden during June, July and August, which will be the ideal location for a range of celebrations including christening and birthday parties. Anyone interested in hiring the marquee for an event, for which staff are happy to provide catering, is urged to call for further information.

Spectacular scenery and great food at The Lodge

THE grounds of a popular restaurant and country inn offer some breathtaking views for diners.

A large amount of work has transformed the gardens of The Lodge including its pond and trees.

Diners relaxing in its conservatory restaurant can enjoy their a la carte meals whilst admiring the landscaped gardens complete with trees covered with white lights, and a beautiful pond which is also lit up at night and is complete with a fountain water feature.

The beautiful surroundings offer the ideal setting for any occasion.

The Lodge Country Inn, Restaurant and Hotel in Hayes Chase, off Burnham Road, near Battlesbridge, is situated on a hill in 10 acres of grounds, and offers great food and entertainment, in a relaxing atmosphere.

It has introduced a new a la carte menu which includes a range of chef's specials.

Its restaurant menu offers a wealth of a la carte and traditional dishes, whilst its bar area serves up a wide selection of delicious snacks and meals starting from £2.95 (over 100 dishes to choose from).

The air-conditioned restaurant also serves a carvery all day, every day, for just £4.95 per person from Monday to Friday, or £5.95 at weekends and on Bank Holidays.

Brian Butterworth took over The Lodge 10 years ago, and since then it has gone from strength to strength, offering an extensive list of entertainment including karaoke on Sunday nights, as well as performances from live bands on Friday nights – including Beagles on July 17, Hell 'n' Back on July 24 and Short Round on July 31 - and a Jazz band on Tuesday nights.

It also now runs tribute nights on the first Thursday of every month. Up-and-coming evenings include Amy Winehouse on August 6 and Elton John on September 3. Both evenings costs £9.95 per person and include a two course meal.

Its hotel offers outstanding accommodation from £39.95 per night, which includes a full English breakfast.

It also has a marquee for hire for weddings and all occasions, from as little as £250. View and book now to avoid disappointment.

There is also an outside play area for children including a bouncy castle, ball pen and swings, all free of charge.

Vehicle Dismantlers

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).

A load off your mind

by Jonathan Crouch

BUYING a caravan is a big investment and with caravanning thefts on the up, owners can't afford to take any risks.

Buying rights
There are a number of precautions consumers should take when looking to buy a used caravan.

1) Don't judge a book by its cover; no matter how good a caravan may look, it could be carrying baggage that you can't see. It may be subject to an outstanding finance, so it could be repossessed by the lenders, leaving an unsuspecting buyer without their dream purchase and out of pocket. It could have been written-off by an insurer or worse, it could be stolen.

2) Bear in mind that consumer protection is far greater when buying from an established dealer than from a private vendor.

Buying Pointers
With these two things in mind, the following list of pointers should ensure that you don't go too far wrong in buying the caravan of your dreams:

(i) Research the market place - compare prices between advertisements and your local dealer. Don't forget to budget for insurance and routine maintenance.

(ii) Don't waste your time visiting vans that are not a legal match for your car.

(iii) Don't deal in the dark - make sure you view the caravan in good daylight and don't go alone. Meet at the seller's house and NEVER agree to meet at a service station or lay-by.

(iv) Request all documentation - ask to see the caravan's service history and Caravan

Registration and Identification Scheme (CRIS) registration document. Also, check if the caravan is NCC approved.

(v) Check the seller's details - make sure the owner is who they say they are. Contact the Caravan Registration and Identification Scheme (CRIS) with the make and model of the tourer and the owner's details to be checked against the information on the CRIS database.

(vi) Is the caravan on finance? - Ask if there is outstanding finance and verify by checking through CRIS. If the caravan has not been paid off, it could still be the property of the finance company that could reclaim it.

(vii) Don't buy a write-off - Has it been in an accident? Check panels closely for signs of repair and check the caravan's history with CRIS to ensure that an insurance company has not previously recorded it as a write-off. Write-offs that are rebuilt are not always safe to return to the road.

(viii) Check the locks - Inspect all door and window locks for signs of force or replacement. This may mean the caravan has been stolen and look carefully at the CRIS window markings for signs of alteration or removal.

There are a couple of organisations you need to know about that should make life easier.

Towsafe is a computerised matching service that can inform consumers whether their car can legally tow a particular caravan and with minimum safety risk. Visit www.towsafe.co.uk.

The second is CRIS, run by HPI on behalf of the National Caravan Council. Call 01722 411430.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS
Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. "Classified" Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in Advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "(T)" etc. in the advertisement.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of an advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for re-publication or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed as acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current Bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required then interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs/appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the Publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the Publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the Publishers' control may occur. The Publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the Publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone numbers alone are not permitted.
Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors. London & Essex Newspapers Ltd will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other London & Essex Newspapers Ltd companies or carefully selected third parties. ## Shrimpers miss out on transfer targets

Southend United

IT has been a quiet summer so far for Southend on the transfer front.

However, chairman Ron Martin has confirmed the club did agree terms with two players – but both deals later fell through.

The Shrimpers sorted out deals with the agents of Watford forward Theo Robinson and defender Ben Chorley.

However, the club was unable to agree a valuation with Watford for Robinson, while Chorley opted to move to rivals Leyton Orient from Tranmere Rovers.

Robinson signed for the Shrimpers on loan in January and went on to make 21 appearances, scoring seven goals.

The 20-year-old has since joined Huddersfield Town for an undisclosed fee, thought to be in excess of £250,000. There he will link up with Peter Clarke and will face the Blues in the first game of the season.

Meanwhile, Southend have confirmed details of its Meet the Blues Day. It will take place at Roots Hall from 9.30am on Sunday, July 26. Entry is free and a host of games and competitions will be available.

Blues boss Steve Tilson is due to arrive at around 10am to meet the fans before the players turn up at midday.

Car parking will not be available at the stadium on the day.

For more information, visit www.southendunited.co.uk

Blues' youth project is shortlisted for a major award

OFFICIALS behind a sports project are close to finding out whether they have scooped an accolade in the 2009 Beyond Sport Awards.

The Goals! Life Skills' project, which is run by Southend United Community & Educational Trust, has been shortlisted in the Best Project by a Professional Sports Team category and will find out if they have been successful tomorrow (Thursday).

Beyond Sport is an initiative which celebrates the world's sports projects that drive positive change through the sport. The awards is part of a three-day Beyond Sport

Summit in London to talk about sport-led social change.

The Goals! Life Skills project has been running for two years and helps raise aspirations of young people aged between 13 and 16-years-old, who have complex issues to deal with in their lives.

The project also re-engages young people into education, providing pathways into further education and employment.

Southend beat off opposition from Arsenal, Chelsea, Manchester

City and Tottenham who all did not make the shortlist.

Steve Goodsell, chief executive of the trust, said: "We are delighted and proud to have made it through to the finals and would like to thank everyone who has played a part in helping Southend United Goals such a success."

Southend United captain Adam Barrett lent his support. He said: "As an ex-pupil of a local secondary school, I am really pleased that this type of project is available to young people in the town."

For more information on the trust, call Steve Goodsell on 01702 341351.

Essex County FA

SUCCESS: Singer Faryl Smith and England international Casey Stoney join footballing girls as part of FA Tesco Girls' Football Week.

Casey & Co help to encourage the girls

ENGLAND international and Chelsea Ladies star Casey Stoney and Britain's Got Talent singer Faryl Smith visited Loughton Academy to help mark the FA Tesco Girls' Football Week.

The event, held in conjunction with the Essex County Football Association, aimed to give girls more details on football in their area and sample the game for the first time.

About 260 girls between the ages of five and 16 took part in the free football taster sessions between June 22 and 28.

Emma Burden and Sharon Brownlie, girls' and women's development officers for Essex FA, were also on hand to provide details on nearby teams and how to get involved in their local area.

Emma said: "The event was a great success. It was definitely the largest primary school girls event I've been involved with and I was thoroughly pleased with everyone who was involved."

"My only hope is that many of these girls now want to take-up the game."

Details about football in outer Essex can be obtained from Emma Burden on 01245 393076 or by e-mail at emma.burden@essexfa.com

Brentwood see off Chelmsford to stay top

Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket League

PREMIER DIVISION

IT was first versus second in the top division and it was leaders Brentwood who were victorious over Chelmsford.

Deciding to bat first, Chelmsford were all out for 240 with Nick Prowling top scorer with 86 as Kasun Bodhisha took 4-48. Bodhisha then did damage with the bat, scoring 90 as Brentwood won by five wickets.

Third place Wanstead lost at home to Hainault & Clayhall by five wickets, who in turn move up to fourth. Wanstead were all out for 227 (Andrew Joslin 58) after winning the toss as Irfan Shah took 6-76. But impressive knocks by Samir Ahmed Qadir (69) and Dominic Hurst (65) saw Hainault to the win.

Upminster stay fifth after drawing at South Woodford, who remain above the bottom two. Highlight of the match saw Upminster's Alan Ison unbeaten on 105.

Gidea Park & Romford moved off the bottom after an impressive win at Colchester & East Essex who drop to sixth. Colchester were put into bat but could only manage 173 as the visitors made good use of the ball and eased to victory by seven wickets.

Woodford Wells also moved up the table after their seven-wicket win at Ardleigh Green, who now occupy the bottom spot.

Luke O'Reilly took 5-27 as Ardleigh could only make 85, but despite a shocking start to their innings where they were 3-3, Michael Richardson (52no) and Dan Majeed (32no) saw their side over the finishing line.

DIVISION ONE

ILFORD maintain their lead at the head after a tight one-wicket win over Fives & Heronians.

The leaders won the toss and decided to bowl first, but Fives were dogged in their innings, scoring 216-5 with Gary Edwards unbeaten on 96.

In their innings, Ilford struggled as the Fives bowling attack spread the wickets among themselves. The last wicket pairing of Theeban Tavarasa and Mazhar Malik saw Ilford over the finishing line to win.

Hornchurch keep up the pressure in second after their six-wicket win over Hutton, who are now second from bottom.

It was a dominant performance by Hornchurch as Hutton were 116 all out after being put into bat, Jamie Went and Craig Smith taking three wickets apiece. A first wicket partnership between Paul Murray Jr (45) and Billy Gordon (46) laid the foundations for Hornchurch's win.

Loughton remain in touch in third after winning by two wickets over Basildon & Pitsea who remain bottom.

Basildon looked to be in real trouble, but a 59 by Lee Lewis helped them onto 173 all out as Rizwan Qureshi took 5-50. However, Basildon made Loughton work for the win, although despite Asif Abbas and Steve Brown taking four wickets apiece, Seb Gallagher's 57 sealed it.

Orsett are in fourth after winning by 52 runs over Westcliff on Sea. Steve Mendes scored 92 helping Orsett to 251, while Shahid Khan was the pick of the bowlers with 6-53.

Chingford came out on top against Wickford in the remaining match, winning by seven wickets.

DIVISION TWO

IT'S no change at the top as leaders Hadleigh & Thundersley won by 95 runs over fourth place Walthamstow.

Scoring 298 after being put into bat (Joe Robbins 100, Dan Jackson 65), Adam Solliex and Nigel Holmes took four wickets each to help their side to the spoils.

Shenfield remain in second after seeing off third place Harlow by eight wickets.

Horndon on the Hill enjoyed their travels, winning by two wickets at Billericay who remain fifth. Leigh on Sea move out of the bottom two winning by 29 runs over Buckhurst Hill.

Put into bat first, Leigh scored 300-5 with Dean Waller (68), Stuart Elliott (55), and Steven Brown (52) scoring well. Buckhurst looked to be struggling but an impressive 122 by Raymond Parkinson, supported by Ian Russell (72), saw them to the win.

At the bottom, Harold Wood finally vacated the bottom spot after their six-wicket win at Old Southendian & Southchurch, who now take up that position. Rob Johnston (106no) and Aaron Lucas (62) helped Old Southendians to 205-7. But a partnership between David Hollingsworth (71) and Shabbaz Khan (75) gave Harold Wood the win.

DIVISION THREE

BENFLEET cemented their place at the top after winning at second place Stanford Le Hope.

Put into the field first, David Miles did the business for Benfleet as he took 5-41 as Stanford were 138 all out, with Ross Poulton top scorer on 57.

However, Benfleet were made to work for it by Stanford, but they held out to win by four wickets.

Belhus move up to third, despite being held to a draw at home by lowly Ongar.

Old Brentwoods are in fourth after winning by eight wickets at West Essex who are now fifth. Seemab Ahsan took 6-55 as West Essex were all out for 113 and Ahmed Khawaja scored 72 not out in Old Brentwoods' innings.

Despite Paul Robbins hitting a magnificent 144 for Old Pardonians, consistent batting by Epping helped them to a five-wicket win.

Woodford Green move off the bottom and put Southend on Sea there after winning by 98 runs, thanks to Javed Sayeed's knock of 115.
